Women Who Rise

Inspirational Networking Lunch

About Feeding Families

At Feeding Families, we're driven by a simple yet profound belief: no one should face the fear and indignity of not knowing where their next meal will come from. Based in the North East of England - a region with the highest levels of food insecurity in the UK - we stand in the gaps left by traditional food support, offering tailored, compassionate, and life-changing support to thousands of individuals and families in crisis.

Women Who Rise

Join us for a powerful celebration of women across the North East. This is your opportunity to connect, inspire, and be inspired – share stories of resilience, ambition, and achievement, and make meaningful connections.

Through engaging speakers, candid conversations, and authentic networking, this event shines a light on the strength, creativity, and determination of women at every stage of their journey. It's about empowering women, sparking new ideas, and fostering a community where ambition meets support.

“What a spectacular day! Surrounded by the most inspiring women all championing each other! I can't wait until next year.”

For women escaping abuse, starting again is never simple.

Through partners like Doorways, Feeding Families supplies essential food and household provisions so women rebuilding their lives aren't forced to choose between safety and survival.

“There was a point where I didn't know how I was going to manage. The support gave me breathing space when everything felt impossible.” – Florence

Women Who Rise

Inspirational Networking Lunch

Why sponsor this event?

Celebrate & Empower Women

Your sponsorship helps create an inspiring afternoon where women from across the North East come together to share stories of resilience, build confidence, and form meaningful connections.

Be Part of Real Impact

This event is more than a lunch — it's a platform that champions courage, ambition, and personal growth. By sponsoring, you position your brand alongside a movement that encourages women to rise, lead, and thrive.

Support a Worthy Cause

Your contribution aligns you with Feeding Families, a charity dedicated to tackling food insecurity and supporting families across our region. Every ticket purchased and sponsored place contributes directly to this vital work.

Brand Visibility & Recognition

Your brand will be featured across event materials, social media, and within the venue on the day — demonstrating your commitment to empowerment, equality, and community impact.

Connect & Inspire

Engage with ambitious, inspiring women — from business owners and leaders to entrepreneurs, apprentices, and those at the very beginning of their careers — while helping to create an event that motivates, uplifts, and drives meaningful change.
